

PERMISSION TO USE COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL IN A THESIS

Emily Carr University Library

520 East 1st Avenue, Vancouver, BC, V5T 0H2

NOTE TO STUDENT: If there are more than two items for a single copyright holder, please use additional forms and obtain signatures on all forms. This form grants permission to include the thesis in the Emily Carr University of Art + Design Library collection, in online format. You are responsible for obtaining any additional permissions, which may be required for any other use of the copyrighted material, including published on any other website or in any publication.

I am a graduate student at the Emily Carr University of Art + Design (ECU) and I'm preparing my final thesis. I am requesting permission to include excerpt(s) and/or images from your publication and/or work, as described below. The source(s) of the included material will be fully identified in the thesis. The thesis will be available online in its entirety through eCollections at Emily Carr (the university online institutional repository), Library and Archives Canada, and indexed through databases such as Google Scholar. The non-exclusive, royalty-free licenses I will grant to the ECU Library can be found here.
